OPTIONS TO PARTICIPATE AND COMMENT:

Members of the public wishing to address the Technology, Information, and Communications Commission may do so in the following ways:

- 1) Appear in person at Quinlan Community Center, Conference Room, 10185 N. Stelling Road:

A. During "Oral Communications", the public may comment on matters not on the agenda, and for agendized matters, the public may comment during the public comment period for each agendized item.

B. Speakers are requested to complete a Speaker Card. While completion of Speaker Cards is voluntary and not required to attend the meeting or provide comments, it is helpful for the purposes of ensuring that all speakers are called upon.

C. Speakers must wait to be called and may begin speaking when recognized by the Chair.

D. Speakers are limited to three (3) minutes each. However, the Chair may reduce the speaking time depending on the number of people who wish to speak on an item. A speaker representing a group of 2 to 5 or more people who are present may have up to 2 minutes per group member, up to 10 minutes maximum.

E. Please note that due to cyber security concerns, speakers are not allowed to connect any personal devices to any City equipment. However, speakers that wish to share a document (e.g. presentations, photographs or other documents) during oral comments may do so by:

- a. E-mailing the document to TICC@cupertino.gov by 1:00 p.m. and staff will advance the slides/share the documents during your oral comment.

2) Written communications as follows:

A. E-mail comments to TICC@cupertino.gov.

B. Regular mail or hand delivered addressed to the: Cupertino Technology, Information, and Communications Commission, City Hall, 10300 Torre Avenue, Cupertino, CA 95014

C. Comments addressed to the Technology, Information, and Communications Commission received by 2:00 p.m. on the day of the meeting will be included in written communications published and distributed before the beginning of the meeting.

D. Comments addressed to the Technology, Information, and Communications Commission received after the 2:00 p.m. deadline, but through the end of the Commission meeting, will be posted to the City's website by the end of the following business day.
