

Proclamation

WHEREAS, National Preparedness Month is an opportune time for every resident of the City of Cupertino to join citizens across our nation in preparing their homes, businesses, and communities for any type of emergency, including natural disasters such as earthquakes, wildfires, floods, and other large-scale emergencies we cannot predict; and

WHEREAS, Preparing now, ahead of an emergency, is one invaluable tool to improve community response to various types of disasters, and to increase the chance of survival, recovery, and return to normalcy following a catastrophic event; and

WHEREAS, A well-connected community is a prepared community, and the City's volunteers strive year-round to prepare for emergencies through the Block Leader and Citizen Corps programs; and

WHEREAS, All residents of the City of Cupertino are urged to plan ahead for disasters and encourage their loved ones to do so by participating in neighborhood preparedness activities and registering for the Santa Clara County AlertSCC mass notification system.

THEREFORE, I, Mayor Liang Chao, and the Cupertino City Council do hereby Proclaim the month of September 2025 as in the City of Cupertino and call on all government agencies, private organizations, businesses, and residents of Cupertino to develop their own emergency preparedness plan and work together toward creating a stronger, more resilient community.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Cupertino to be affixed this Wednesday, September Fourth, Two Thousand and Twenty-Five.

The Honorable Liang Chao
Mayor, City of Cupertino
