Design and Composition

Observe the totality of the artists portfolio. Consider if the following elements and principles are evident in their work. Note that not all the principles will apply to every medium.

Principles

Unity: Do the parts work as a whole? Consider the marks, shapes, colors, values, and textures.

Balance: Is there an equal distribution of visual weight? Has symmetrical or asymmetrical balance been created in the shapes, colors, textures, and values?

Rhythm/Movement: Is there fluidity of form in three-dimensional works? Are there shapes or directional lines to connect pieces within two-dimensional works? Does your eye travel around the entire picture plane?

Emphasis: Is there a defined focal point or center of interest?

Contrast: Is there a variety of values, shapes, colors, lines and textures?

Elements

Line: Is there variety of line? Have lines been used to create texture, perspective, or movement?

Shape: Is there variety of shape? Are the shapes used been successfully created and used in the work?

Space: Has the illusion of foreground, middle ground, and background shape been successfully created?

Form: Has the illusion of depth been successfully created in two-dimensional works? Have appropriate figures been used to represent the ideas within three-dimensional works?

Color: Is there a variety of color? Have colors been used to create space or emotion?

Value: Is there a defined light source? Have highlights, shadows, and cast shadows been included in the art?

Texture: Are there visual or tactile surface characteristics in the work? Does it have a variety of texture and interesting patterns?
