- For all Parks and Recreation Events, please register at reg4rec.org
- The City has soft-launched the new City website in December, and we appreciate your understanding as we enhance and refine the site to provide a more seamless and user-friendly experience for the residents.
 - During the transition time, there may be some technical issues users may experience such as broken links. Please reach out to the IT Department at webmaster@cupertino.gov and alert us if you encounter any technical issues as you are browsing the new website.
- International Travel
 - If you are traveling internationally this year, please make sure you inform the IT Department in advance. Email helpdesk@cupertino.gov with your travel dates and locations so the Security Team knows to not disable your account while you are traveling.
- The Library Commission regular meeting on Wednesday, April 2 has been canceled due to a conflict with the City Council special meeting. Jessica will send out a poll to collect Commissioner availability for an alternative special meeting.
