Dear Captain Rich Urena:

As a resident of the city of Cupertino and your constituent, I ask that you oppose the draft ordinance that seeks to amend the City's municipal code as it relates to firearms.

Over the years California has made its firearm laws stricter and stricter under the guise of safety and reducing gun violence. Those laws have yet to make California safer and similarly will not make the city of Cupertino safer.

I urge you to oppose this draft proposal and instead focus on criminals and enforcing the current laws, not placing further restrictions on law-abiding citizens.

Sincerely,
John McVay

Dear Captain Rich Urena:

As a resident of the city of Cupertino and your constituent, I ask that you oppose the draft ordinance that seeks to amend the City's municipal code as it relates to firearms.

Over the years California has made its firearm laws stricter and stricter under the guise of safety and reducing gun violence. Those laws have yet to make California safer and similarly will not make the city of Cupertino safer.

I urge you to oppose this draft proposal and instead focus on criminals and enforcing the current laws, not placing further restrictions on law-abiding citizens.

As a resident of the city of Cupertino and your constituent, I ask that you oppose the draft ordinance that seeks to amend the City's municipal code as it relates to firearms.

Over the years California has made its firearm laws stricter and stricter under the guise of safety and reducing gun violence. Those laws have yet to make California safer and similarly will not make the city of Cupertino safer.

I urge you to oppose this draft proposal and instead focus on criminals and enforcing the current laws, not placing further restrictions on law-abiding citizens.

Sincerely,
Sergio Chavez
