CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS

Storytime is in full swing at the Cupertino Library. This month alone we were joined by over 600 kids and caregivers to sing, read, and dance with us. With storytimes ranging from babies through school age, we have something for everyone. Thank you to the Friends of the Library for supporting our storytimes! We were also very excited to welcome musician, author, and educator, Jose Luis Orozco for a musical celebration of Hispanic Heritage month. His performance included classic kid's tunes such as Twinkle Twinkle Little Star and popular hits like The Macarena and La Bamba.

ADULT & TEEN PROGRAMS

September has been a busy month for programs. Notable highlights include the last courtyard concert, with harpist Adele Stinson and Community Poetry Night with Cupertino Poet Laureate Kaecey McCormick. We also featured the next in our Wellness series with Dr. Ronesh Sinha, who spoke to a large crowd on natural approaches to dealing with cholesterol and heart disease.

This month also featured new programs, including one-on-one appointments with a nutritionist, and Welcoming Week, which offered drop-in appointments with attorneys specializing in immigration issues.

We were also pleased with our National Voter Registration Day efforts. Many thanks to the League of Women Voters and teen volunteers who staffed our lobby table all day Tuesday, September 25, highlighting the importance of voting and reminding all about voting in the upcoming November election.

Matt Lorenzo, teen librarian, worked with slam poet Mighty Mike McGee to offer two teen poetry workshops this month. On October 3, they will offer our second Teen Poetry Slam, open to all teens, and supported by the Friends of the Cupertino Library.
