Hi Whitney -

Would you please share the following link with the Library Commissioners? This is for Santa Clara County Office of Education's page on the digital divide, with links to the mapping data I mentioned.

<https://www.sccoe.org/covid-19/Pages/Closing-the-Digital-Divide.aspx>

Thanks so much -
Clare.

Q4 2020 Cupertino Poet Laureate Update

CPL program has continued Saturday Poetry Pen-Pals

1. 7/25/20 Saturday Poetry Pen-Pals #4 “Diversity Continues” – invited diversified well-known featured poets within United states. People loved it.

2. The Poetry Window Project has been executed Yay – thanks to Cupertino Library and City of Cupertino! (8/19/20)

3. 8/29/20 Saturday Poetry Pen-Pals #5 “For Youth” featuring local and the out-of-state young poets and family members – it was really fun with grandma and grandson’s duet first time!

4. 9/26/20 Saturday Poetry Pen-Pals #6 “Where we are from” - the recently released Covid-19 patient inmate poet, the immigrant writer who fled from Soviet Union back in 1979 and New Yorker best seller “Know my name” author Chanel Miller’s mother were among the honorable guests. It was the most moving, striking workshop I ever hosted.
