

Community Meeting on Cupertino Housing Element

Explore what affordable housing is, what it looks like, and how to improve the community for everyone to ensure an inclusive, diverse, affordable, and thriving environment.

The meeting will include a panel of individuals representing a variety of experiences, including neurodivergence and developmental disabilities, homelessness and affordable housing, and racial and ethnic discrimination.

You will have multiple opportunities to speak with fellow community members about inclusive housing in Cupertino.

Monday, May 23
