

Intersection and Signalization

Class IV Bikeways include separation of bicylists and motorists up to the intersection. In locations where there are many right turns, different signal phases are used to remove the conflict between the two modes.

