Section 1 | Economic Update

Economic Update

- Economic trends have been decelerating along with tighter financial conditions and restrictive monetary policy. Recent data suggests positive but below trend growth this year. Although the pace of job growth is moderating, labor markets remain solid, and the U.S. consumer has demonstrated resiliency. Market participants and the Federal Reserve are maintaining very divergent views regarding the future trajectory of monetary policy. Given the cumulative effects of tighter monetary policy and stress in the banking sector, we believe the Federal Reserve is likely near a pause in their rate hiking campaign. If moderate growth continues, we believe the Fed will likely maintain the Federal Funds rate in restrictive territory until inflationary pressures subside.

■ At the March meeting, the Federal Open Market Committee voted unanimously to raise the target federal funds rate by $0.25 \%$ to a range of $4.75-5.00 \%$. Fed Chair Powell reiterated the committee's focus on bringing down inflation to their $2 \%$ target; however, the committee softened language about "ongoing increases" in rates in the prior statement to "some additional policy firming may be appropriate". The statement also emphasized that the U.S. banking system is "sound and resilient" and acknowledged the tightening of financial conditions. The Chandler team believes the FOMC is likely near a pause in their rate hiking cycle.

■ In April, the yield curve inversion widened. The 2-year Treasury yield fell 2 basis points to $4.01 \%$, the 5 -year Treasury yield dropped 9 basis points to $3.49 \%$, and the 10 -year Treasury yield fell 5 basis points to $3.43 \%$. The inversion between the 2year Treasury yield and 10-year Treasury yield declined to -58 basis points at April month end versus -56 basis points at March month-end. The spread between the 2 -year Treasury and $10-$ year Treasury yield one year ago was +22 basis points. The inversion between 3-month and 10-year Treasuries widened to - 163 basis points in April from - 128 in March. The shape of the yield curve indicates that the probability of recession is increasing.

Employment

Unemployment Rate

Source: US Department of Labor

The U.S. economy added 236,000 jobs in March, and the prior two months were revised downward by 17,000 . Although the pace of job growth is moderating, employment remains strong, with the three-month moving average payrolls at 345,000 and the six-month moving average at 315,000 . The private sector reported broad gains, led by leisure and hospitality. The unemployment rate fell to $3.5 \%$ due to a sharp rise in the number of people employed, and the participation rate increased to $62.6 \%$ from $62.5 \%$ in February. The U-6 underemployment rate, which includes those who are marginally attached to the labor force and employed part time for economic reasons, declined to $6.7 \%$ from the prior month at $6.8 \%$. Average hourly earnings rose $4.2 \%$ year-over-year in March, down from a $4.6 \%$ increase in February. Job Openings dipped to 9.9 million, the first drop below 10 million since May of 2021. While the overall pace of hiring is slowing, levels remain consistent with a solid labor market.

Inflation

The Consumer Price Index (CPI) increased in March $0.1 \%$ month-over-month and $5.0 \%$ year-over-year, down from $6.0 \%$ in February. The Core CPI, which excludes volatile food and energy components, rose $0.4 \%$ month-over-month and $5.6 \%$ year-over-year, accelerating from $5.5 \%$ in February. Housing remained the largest factor in headline CPI representing $60 \%$ of the increase. The Personal Consumption Expenditures (PCE) index rose $4.2 \%$ year-over-year in March, improving from a $5.1 \%$ year-over-year gain in February. Core PCE, the Federal Reserve's preferred inflation gauge, increased $4.6 \%$ year-over-year in March, down slightly from a $4.7 \%$ increase in February. Inflationary trends are declining, but the return to the Fed's $2 \%$ target remains uneven with high service-sector inflation and strong wage growth as headwinds.

Federal Reserve

At the March meeting, the Federal Open Market Committee voted unanimously to raise the target federal funds rate by $0.25 \%$ to a range of $4.75-5.00 \%$. Fed Chair Powell reiterated the committee's focus on bringing down inflation to their $2 \%$ target; however, the committee softened language about "ongoing increases" in rates in the prior statement to "some additional policy firming may be appropriate". The statement also emphasized that the U.S. banking system is "sound and resilient" and acknowledged the tightening in financial conditions. Powell indicated that the extent of these effects is uncertain but speculated that tighter credit conditions could be equivalent to a rate hike or more. The Summary of Economic Projections was little changed, with the consensus target federal funds rate rising to $5.1 \%$ by the end of 2023 (implying one more quarter point hike), falling to $4.3 \%$ in 2024 (up from $4.1 \%$ previously), and declining to $3.1 \%$ by the end of 2025. No rate cuts were in the Fed's base case for this year, contrary to the market consensus. Although projections imply policymakers are winding down interest rate hikes, the statement clearly reflected optionality for the Fed to remain data dependent. The Chandler team believes the Fed is likely near a pause in their rate hiking cycle.

Bond Yields

At the end of April, the 2-year Treasury yield was 129 basis points higher, and the $10-Y e a r$ Treasury yield was about 49 basis points higher, year-over-year. The inversion between the 2-year Treasury yield and 10-year Treasury yield widened to -58 basis points at April month-end versus 56 basis points at March month-end. The average historical spread (since 2003) is about +130 basis points. The inversion between 3 -month and 10-year Treasuries widened to -163 basis points in April from -128 in March. The shape of the yield curve indicates that the probability of recession is increasing.

Information contained herein is confidential. Prices are provided by ICE Data Services Inc ("IDS"), an independent pricing source. In the event IDS does not provide a price or if the price provided is not reflective of fair market value, Chandler will obtain pricing from an alternative approved third party pricing source in accordance with our written valuation policy and procedures. Our valuation procedures are also disclosed in Item 5 of our Form ADV Part 2A.

Performance results are presented gross-of-advisory fees and represent the client's Total Return. The deduction of advisory fees lowers performance results. These results include the reinvestment of dividends and other earnings. Past performance may not be indicative of future results. Therefore, clients should not assume that future performance of any specific investment or investment strategy will be profitable or equal to past performance levels. All investment strategies have the potential for profit or loss. Economic factors, market conditions or changes in investment strategies, contributions or withdrawals may materially alter the performance and results of your portfolio.

Index returns assume reinvestment of all distributions. Historical performance results for investment indexes generally do not reflect the deduction of transaction and/or custodial charges or the deduction of an investment management fee, the incurrence of which would have the effect of decreasing historical performance results. It is not possible to invest directly in an index.

Fixed income investments are subject to interest, credit and market risk. Interest rate risk: the value of fixed income investments will decline as interest rates rise. Credit risk: the possibility that the borrower may not be able to repay interest and principal. Low rated bonds generally have to pay higher interest rates to attract investors willing to take on greater risk. Market risk: the bond market in general could decline due to economic conditions, especially during periods of rising interest rates.

Ratings information have been provided by Moody's, S&P and Fitch through data feeds we believe to be reliable as of the date of this statement, however we cannot guarantee its accuracy.
Security level ratings for U.S. Agency issued mortgage-backed securities ("MBS") reflect the issuer rating because the securities themselves are not rated. The issuing U.S. Agency guarantees the full and timely payment of both principal and interest and carries a AA+/Aaa/AAA by S&P, Moody's and Fitch respectively.

Your qualified custodian bank maintains control of all assets reflected in this statement and we urge you to compare this statement to the one you receive from your qualified custodian. Chandler does not have any authority to withdraw or deposit funds from/to the custodian account.
