PARKS AND RECREATION COMMISSION STAFF REPORT

Meeting: August 2, 2018

Subject

Inclusive Playground Feasibility Study- Concept Plans

Recommended Action

Receive the inclusive play area concept plans and provide feedback

Background

The city retained Verde Design to conduct a study to determine the feasibility of creating an inclusive play area in Cupertino. There is currently no all-inclusive play area in the city. The purpose of the study is to identify sites that are suitable for locating an inclusive play area, conduct a preliminary evaluation of the potential sites, determine which sites warrant further consideration, and to develop two sample concepts for a play area.

Discussion

The feasibility study was presented to the Parks and Recreation Commission on June 7, 2018. It is available on the city website at the following link:

Since then, two new sections have been added: conceptual plans, and preliminary cost estimates. The consultant will present the concepts for feedback by the public and the Parks and Recreation Commission.

Sustainability Impact

This feasibility study does not have any sustainability impact.

Fiscal Impact

Funds for this feasibility study are allocated in the FY18 Capital Improvement Program.
