ORAL COMMUNICATIONS:

Jennifer Griffin thanked the Commissioners for their service to the City.

Richard Mehlinger voiced concerns about the appointment of Kitty Moore to the Planning Commission.

Heather Dean spoke against her perceived division in the City and asked the Commissioners to help fix the divide and make unbiased decisions.

~~Marianne Sholvin~~ Marieann Shovlin spoke about the conflicts of interest in the City, exposing the City of lawsuits and financial liabilities. She asked that the Commissioners make decisions mindful of that.

Lisa Warren asked the ~~Commissioners~~ prior speakers not to scold and direct the Commissioners. She was uncomfortable with how that happened. ~~rather to work together~~. She thanked ~~them~~ the Commissioners for their efforts to heal the divide in the community.

Parth Bharwad asked that the Commission not spread the ideology that persons living in BMR units or affordable housing are bad persons. He asked that the Commissioners keep Ms. Moore's opinions in this regard inline and asked her to respect all persons.

Mark Mollineaux commented on the role of planning. He felt that the primary job of cities is to plan for growth and be welcoming to it rather than be exclusionary.

WRITTEN COMMUNICATIONS:

Four emails were received voicing opposition to Kitty Moore's appointment to the Planning Commission. One email was received regarding item #3.
