LIBRARY COMMISSION STAFF REPORT

Meeting: April 7, 2021

Subject

Superfest Disability Film Festival

Recommended Action

Discuss the Superfest Disability Film Festival and consider recommending as a future program.

Discussion

The Commission has been made aware of the Superfest Disability Film Festival which is hosted by the Paul K. Longmore Institute on Disability at San Francisco State University. The festival celebrates cinema that portrays disability and prioritizes access for disabled filmgoers of all kinds. The Superfest organization offers showcases where groups can select a film or selection of films to be presented, followed by a facilitated conversation.

The Commission has requested to agendize this topic to discuss and consider recommending a Superfest showcase as a future program.
