Mayor Paul closed the public comment period.

Councilmembers asked questions and made comments.

Chao moved and Willey seconded to add the following suggestions to the implementation guidelines.

- 1. Resolution and regulation
- 2. Consider new poles in commercial sites - (resolve issues with overhead powerline etc.)
 - Cost for new pole versus existing pole
- 3. Duration of permits:
 - 3 years term for category 3 & 4 site to renew in 3 years
 - Acro Duration of permit before construction: at most 6 months to continue construction (cross reference existing direction allowed for encroachment permit). There should be a processing fee for renewal and a monthly fee charged for permitted and not constructed sites after 6 months.
 - (Existing code permit reasonable extensions up to 6 months)
- 4. Finer categories:
 - Category 3 sites for other sites more than 40 feet away

- Add Category 4 sites for sites within 40 feet of any residential structure => require public meeting and final approval by the planning commission
 - Add Category 5 sites for any sites within 20 feet of any structure => Planning Commission & Council approval
- 5. Transparency for siting analysis: Establish that Category 1, 2, 3 and other alternative sites with 1000 feet are not feasible:
 - the applicant should establish that
 - “that denial of a small cell site in one of those areas deprives a carrier of its rights under federal and state law” (Los Altos case from staff report)
 - And “provide documentation with their small cell permit application showing that a closer site is the only feasible location that meets their service needs.”
- 6. Require master plan if they submitted 10 or more permits within one year
 - “Applicants are strongly encouraged to include a master plan which identifies the location of the proposed facility in relation to all existing and potential locations in the city that are reasonably anticipated for construction within two years of submittal of the application.” (Los Altos)
- 7. Letter of notification to include the process to expect:
 - A statement that “The City will act on the application without a public hearing but that any interested person or entity may appeal the City’s decision directly to the City Manager or his/her designee”; (Campbell Guidelines)
 - A general statement that the FCC requires the City to take final action on small cell applications within 60 days or 90 days, depending on the nature of the proposed facility; (Campbell Guidelines)
 - A statement that, “Appeals shall not be permitted when based solely on the environmental effects from radio frequency emissions that are compliant with applicable FCC regulations and guidelines” (Campbell Guidelines)

Willey made a friendly amendment to direct staff to provide answers to Council’s questions when the resolution comes back with questions submitted to the City Clerk by Friday, April 30. (Chao and Willey accepted the friendly amendment).

Moore made a friendly amendment to also explore an ordinance along with a resolution and guidelines; include stronger aesthetics requirements and the potential of updating fiber optic lines; and direct staff to provide a comparison table of guidelines in other cities including distance to residences and schools and current litigation. (Chao and Willey accepted the friendly amendment).

Wei made a friendly amendment to add that the rollout will be implemented in a sensible/feasible way. (Chao and Willey accepted the friendly amendment).

Chao amended her motion to add consistent standards to playgrounds and schools; all applications should be posted to the website when it is deemed complete; and consider new light pole sites at parks and any other city sites. (Willey and Chao accepted the friendly amendment).

Final Motion:

Chao moved and Willey seconded to direct staff to answer Council's questions and to produce a combination of an Ordinance, Resolution, and/or guidelines per Chao's suggestions with a pallet of options (Paul) and bring back to future meeting date; Council will submit questions to the City Clerk by Friday, April 30; staff will also provide a comparison table of guidelines in other cities including distance to residences and schools and current litigation.

Chao's suggestions:
