OLD BUSINESS

2. 2017-2018 Work Plan Discussion
Commissioners were presented with an updated draft of the 2017-2018 work plan document. The commission recommended a few updates in sections III and adding a new section for commission outreach. Commissioner Lau motions to adopt the work plan with recommended changes. Commissioner Rajaram second the motion. Motion passes unanimously.
3. HBV Presentation
Sindu Naranyan, a junior at Cupertino High School, led a presentation on the Hepatitis B virus, a "silent killer" and the virus' prevalence in the Asian community. She is spreading awareness by starting a school organization and has requested the Teen Commission's help in spreading the word and getting community feedback. Her goal is to organize a 5k on World Hepatitis Day, July 28th, 2018, to spread awareness of the disease.
4. Teen Workshops
Commissioners Krishnan and Subramanyam completed the application and presented it to the Teen Commission. Commissioners made edits and updated the form. Staff Liaison Mestizo will review the form and the next steps will be to post it online and begin marketing. Once applications are received the Teen Commission will review submissions and proceed accordingly.
5. Teen Commission and Tree Lighting
In an effort to connect with the Cupertino community and spread awareness of the commission, the Teen Commission decided to volunteer during the December 1st Tree Lighting Event organized by Cupertino Recreation. Staff Liaison Mestizo will be working with the event coordinator to organize assignments. The Teen Commission will also be volunteering at the December 16th Gift of Hope event organized by West Valley Community Services.

6. Teen Stress Brainstorm

The Teen Commission brainstormed ideas on addressing the issue of teen stress including an article in the Scene and a presentation. More ideas will be discussed at future meetings. The Teen Commission agreed to present at the November 16th Public Safety Forum organized by the Public Safety Commission on the topic.
