Jennifer Griffin

Lisa Warren

Vice Chair Saxena closed the public comment period.

The Planning Commissioners continued the discussion regarding prior spending trends, how to better present the CIP program for ease of readability and also discussed the need to balance the spending for parkland projects across the City in the future.

Moved by Moore and seconded by Takahashi to: Recommend to the City Council that the proposed CIP program is exempt from CEQA and with regard to the consistency of the City of Cupertino's proposed five year Capital Improvement Program (FY 2019-20 – 2023-24), it is consistent with the City's General Plan, except that "the Planning Commission finds that there is an issue with parkland equity and whether these projects embody the spirit of the General Plan". The motion carried 4-0-1 (Wang absent).

The heading of the draft resolution will be revised and the noted exception will be incorporated into Section 3 of the findings of the resolution. (see video 03:56:10)
