OLD BUSINESS

2. Receive a Presentation on an Update on the Community Gardens Improvement Project

Jeff Milkes, Director of Parks and Recreation, reviewed the community gardens project with the Commission, reviewing the timeline of the project, current considerations on potential revisions, and the overall status. Overall project budget was reduced, volunteer efforts was added to the scope, and additional satellite locations are being looked at. Plan to be finalized next month, with bids going out in August and construction in the Fall. Item will be brought back in a future agenda.

Chair Tambe suggested incentivizing the current gardeners and those on the waitlist to help in the building of the new gardens.

3. Receive a Presentation and Update on the Dog Off Leash Area (DOLA) Trial at Jollyman Park.

Jeff presented to the Commission about the outreach survey that went live on August 1 and reviewed the various community outreach efforts and community input opportunities. Survey will run until August 31 and the trial will be about 10 months long, starting in October of 2019.

4. Parks and Recreation Commission Fiscal Year (FY) 2019-20 Work Program

Jeff reviewed the amendments made by City Council when they reviewed and approved the Commission's work program, which included two items: the community gardens and a review of the Blackberry Farm Golf Course.

NEW BUSINESS

5. Receive a Presentation on the Inaugural Cupertino Campout Community Event
Daniel Mestizo, Recreation Coordinator, presented to the Commission about the new Cupertino Campout Event held at Creekside park on July 13 and 14. Showed pictures of the event, survey results taken from participants, and the potential expansion opportunities for the future.

Chair Tambe suggested reaching out to Patagonia, for a potential sponsorship opportunity for next year's event. Commissioner Xu suggested adding photos to the website to attract more participants.

STAFF AND COMMISSION REPORTS

6. Receive Monthly Update Reports from:

- Director
 - o Shakespeare in the Park
 - o Chess Event at Creekside Park
 - o Zumba/Yoga/Art in the Park Classes
 - o Citywide Parks and Recreation System Master Plan – final draft will be publized towards the end of September, with the final copy hopefully adopted by the end of November.
 - o Will support voting opportunities in City buildings in the future. Chair Tambe suggested having voter registration documents available at all of the City events in preparation.

- Rancho Rinconada: a consultant is currently reviewing things. Item will come to the Commission in the future.
