OLD BUSINESS

4. Determine the winner of the Art in Unexpected Places contest

Received submittal from Sarabijt Singh

Received submittal from Geeta Taneja

Commissioner Mahalingam motioned to determine Sarabijt Singh the winner of the Art in Unexpected Places contest, choosing her "Sample 1" with some additional feedback provided from commission. (Add more poppy flowers, nesting owls on eucalyptus trees, more local birds, reference contest description of local flora and fauna). Draft with edits will be presented at the July 27, 2020 meeting. Commissioner Matley seconded. Motion passed with 4 votes yes and Commissioner Kasamsetty absent.

5. Emerging and Distinguished Artist Awards- Determine the next steps for the Artist Award programs

Usual outreach for Emerging Artist and Distinguished Artist is March-July. Deadline would be July 17. Discussion on whether the Emerging Artist and Distinguished Artist should overlap with the Young Artist cycle or wait until March 2021. After discussion, the desire was to continue Emerging Artist and Distinguished Artists and overlap with the Young Artists. The cycle for the Emerging Artist, Distinguished Artist, and Young Artists awards will be July 27-November 13, 2020. Consensus was to use city resources and online to advertise (website, newsletter). Proposed discussion of outreach for the awards programs at the July 27 meeting.

NEW BUSINESS

6. Introduce the new Fine Arts Commission Staff Liaison, Kelsey Hayes

Welcome Kelsey Hayes as new Fine Arts Commission staff liaison and made Commission introductions.

STAFF AND COMMISSION REPORTS

Staff Report

Erick Serrano provided the commission a report on a potential mural project on the sound wall of Hwy 280 and Wolfe Road exit. There is a lot of graffiti, and what happens is that the City has to contact Santa Clara Valley Water District to paint over the graffiti. The idea from the building official is to set up another Art in Unexpected Places on the sound wall. The art could be commissioned or a contest depending on the direction from the commission.
